50X1-HUM

1. Baustab 110 at Karlshorst was set up approximately during February 1953 to direct the planning and supervision, during building, of military installation, especially of airfields and concrete underground installations.
2. The Baustab is headed by Anthor (fmu), who is directly responsible to the Minister of the Interior.
3. In May the staff of the Baustab consisted of about 80 engineers and architects drawn from various designing offices in official organizations. They were selected on a very careful basis, which included the provisos that they:
 - a. were politically reliable;
 - b. had no family ties with West Germany or any foreign country, and
 - c. that they were highly qualified in underground construction and complicated foundation work.
4. Soviet officers are also engaged in planning and supervisory work at the Baustab. No names are at present available.
5. An underground project is being carried out under the supervision of Baustab 110 in the Mecklenburg forest area between Warin and Neukloster. No details are available yet, but exceptional security measures are reported.
